Hello all and Happy New Year.

I trust everybody had a safe and joyous ringing in the new year.

This one will be short and sweet.

Some over all pics and just a hello.

Next week we should be getting a bunch of new shipments..

Since I am on vacation, you will have to wait to see them until I get back.

Unless you want to know about something specific. Call Lee 818-349-4091

Thanks for accepting my newsletters.
