By Robert Ehrig

Hello again,

Its time to make room in the showroom to walk around. LOL

I have decided to put some nice packages together and sell them at killer prices.

They need to stay in this configuration to get the deal, but that is up to you, of course.

We also have a Viking shipment that landed today.

I will highlight some of the items, even though they will not last long.

Please let me know via email if you are looking for anything specific.

Thanks for accepting my weekly updates,

Robert Ehrig
