Well, when you get this I will be cruising the pacific ocean, somewhere in the Mexican Rivera. Drinking Margaritas and smoking cigars.
My trusty sales partner from the weekend, Sylvester, will be attending the store.

I took some pictures before I left, so the next few newsletters might look similar.

We really start up the receiving of new product early in the year.

But still watch the next few weeks for some package pricing.

Happy holidays to you all,

Robert Ehrig
