Week 4 of “stay at home”
By Robert Ehrig
4-18-20

Last week I made some special offers. Some people took advantage.

This week a few different offers and on some great products.

It is very likely that once this pandemic is over, so are these kinds of deals.

Selling is hard for our type of product, since you can't see it before you buy it.

But rest assured that at these deals, even the minor blemished are palatable.

And most of these hardly have any damage at all. And all with warranty.

Lots of the items in this week are new, unused items, just out of box, as you will.

Great time to grab a great deal, just saying.
