Oh look a palindrome.

By Robert Ehrig

We are super loaded with product that you can have now.

I will not tell you, “ well first available date is some time in May 2022”

We may check and test some of it so you don't have to worry about it working.

Look at that, something else the “retailers” don't do. LOL

None the less, please come check it out. Lots of great product.

We look forward to seeing you.
